

I am writing to say how much I want Indiana's telephone privacy law to be left as it is now. Since registering with the Attorney General's office, when the law came into effect, we have had a dramatic drop in telephone solicitation. It has given me much peace to not need to be fielding calls from phone solicitors NEARLY as often. Please leave the Indiana law as it is. Thank you.